Educational organization tools. No legal, tax, investment, credit repair, or lending services. No funding or credit-score outcome is promised.

Prepare before applying

This guide helps organize records and questions. RKC does not lend money, broker financing, submit applications, or guarantee funding. Lenders decide eligibility and may request different documents.

A practical preparation sequence

Define a specific use of funds. Collect current records. Explain how the business earns money. Build a realistic cash-flow view. Ask each lender for its current requirements. Compare the full cost and terms of any offer.

Keep claims and records accurate

Use real revenue, expenses, ownership, and obligations. Identify forecasts as forecasts. Do not create circular transactions or artificial sales to suggest demand or processing volume.

Before paying an application fee

Verify the provider independently, read the fee and refund terms, and understand whether a personal guarantee, lien, or credit inquiry is involved.
